

The Bluegrass Compensation Association (BCA) was founded to support the needs of local compensation and benefits professionals. Affiliated with the WorldatWork Local Network, BCA is open to professionals, managers and administrative staff in the Bluegrass area engaged in the compensation and benefits fields. The organization is governed by elected officers, committees and appointed directors.

Membership in the Bluegrass Compensation Association (BCA) is on an individual basis and is open to professionals engaged in designing, establishing, executing, managing or administering the compensation and/or benefits functions within their organizations.

Benefits of BCA membership include:

- No charge to attend six luncheon meetings each featuring a one hour current topical presentation and discussion. Guests are welcome to attend the luncheon meeting at a cost of $20 for each professional and $10 for each student with proof of a valid student ID.
- Reduced fees for BCA special meetings, programs, and events
- Discounts on WorldatWork Certified Compensation Professional (CCP) certification courses
- One or more FREE Professional Development Seminars (with breakfast) featuring extended current topical presentation and discussion. Guests are welcome to attend a seminar at a cost of $50 for each professional and $25 for each student with proof of a valid student ID.
- Online access to the BCA membership roster, and copies of presentations/handouts not available to the general public
- Ability to post jobs to the BCA website
- Opportunities to network with other compensation professionals
- Knowledge that you are supporting your local professional organization
- Professional and personal development with opportunity to earn HRCI credits toward recertification
- Opportunity to serve in a leadership capacity on the BCA board
